Developers plan to turn a vacant lot just east of downtown Salem into a 194-unit apartment complex called Koz on 14th.

A site plan submitted to the city for 1411 State St. outlines a proposal to develop a four-story building on the 1.32-acre lot zoned for mixed-use.

Residents may already be familiar with Koz Development, a Washington-based developer, which owns Koz on State just down the road from the proposed project.
